CITRUS QUEEN CONTEST TO BE DECIDED FRIDAY

Myrna Stuart, Miss Palm Springs, will compete with 40 other contestants in San Bernardino tomorrow night for the honor of reigning as queen over the annual National Orange Show March 19 to 29.

Competition will be staged in the spacious Ralph E. Swing auditorium on the National Orange Show grounds. A long ramp will be constructed in the auditorium over which the girls will parade in formal and bathing suits while Leighton Noble and his orchestra furnish background music.

Names of the judges, according to E. L. Morgan, president of the 1953 citrus classic, will be kept secret until after the selection of California's Orange Queen.

Miss Stuart, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stuart, 251 Via del Sol, was the Lions club candidate in the local contest.

Wealthy Visitor Drowns in Pool

Death of Samuel David Sommer, whose pajama-clad body was found in the swimming pool of a local hotel early Sunday morning, was listed as "probable suicide" after an autopsy by Deputy Coroner Russell R. Snow revealed that he had died by drowning.

Sommer, 69, a retired San Francisco merchant, and his wife, Rose, had been visitors in the Village for five weeks at 528 Camino Real.

IT WAS REPORTED that Sommer had been in a "despondent" frame of mind following an automobile accident four months ago.

His body was found submerged in seven feet of water in the pool at about 5:20 a. m. by his wife, who had become worried when she awakened and discovered he was missing from the room. She told officers that she had last seen him when she retired for the evening at 11:30 p. m., Saturday.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT was called to the scene with its resuscitator, but it was reported that any efforts to revive him would be useless.

Survivors are his widow, Rose; one son, Julius Sommer of San Francisco, and one grandson.

Funeral services were in charge of the Sinai Memorial Chapel in San Francisco.

Circus Meeting Put Off 2 Weeks

Desert Circus meeting scheduled for Tuesday was postponed for two weeks to give Co-Chairmen Milt Hicks and George Streeb additional time to formulate plans, President Adrian Rosen announced.

Selection of the theme will be made at the next meeting, Rosen said.

Kettmann Says Resignation 'Final'

Ask City-Wide Survey of Racing Plan

Realtors Urge Study by All Local Groups

Recommendations Then to be Made to Racing Board

Representatives of other civic groups were asked to join with the Palm Springs Realty Board in a study of the establishment of race tracks in the Palm Springs area, and a recommendation to the state on whether racing is desired by Villagers.

This proposal was made by Program Chairman Terry Ray at the Realty Board meeting at the Ranch Tuesday which featured discussions of the proposed quarter horse and thoroughbred tracks. It was accepted immediately by Ed Davidson, president of the Hotel and Apartment House association.

REPRESENTING the two groups were: Frank Bogert and Phil Delano, quarter horse racing, and E. L. Stanciloff of Los Angeles and Conrad Bakker of San Bernardino, thoroughbred racing. In opposition to establishment of both tracks was Dr. James Blackstone Jr., pastor of the Community Church of Palm Springs.

Endorsement of the quarter horse plant was given at the meeting by Tony Burke, representing 60 members of the Desert Riders, and Jimmy Coopers, president of Los Compadres and member of the board of directors of the Palm Springs Mounted Police.

BOGERT, who had spoken earlier at the Kiwanis club meeting at the Tennis club, told the 50 persons present that "we are definitely going out to get racing in Palm Springs."

Delano asked the group not to decide what "kind of racing is wanted here, but whether racing is desired in any form."

Check to see whether the advantages outweigh the disadvantages, he advised the group. Stanciloff reviewed the history of the thoroughbred plans and said that application has been made for 18 days of racing in the Fall of 1954, which includes 14 days of track racing and four days for charity.

HE SAID THAT his group has requested the state board to hold a public hearing in Palm Springs prior to the close of the Santa Anita season March 7 so that horsemen could present their views on the matter.

Plans for the track and grandstand and clubhouse were displayed by Stanciloff, who announced that the location is just outside the city limits of Palm Springs on Highway 111, three miles from any public buildings.

HE PREDICTED that a track would attract more people than Del Mar.

Bakker reported that horsemen from throughout the county are interested in seeing a track established here.

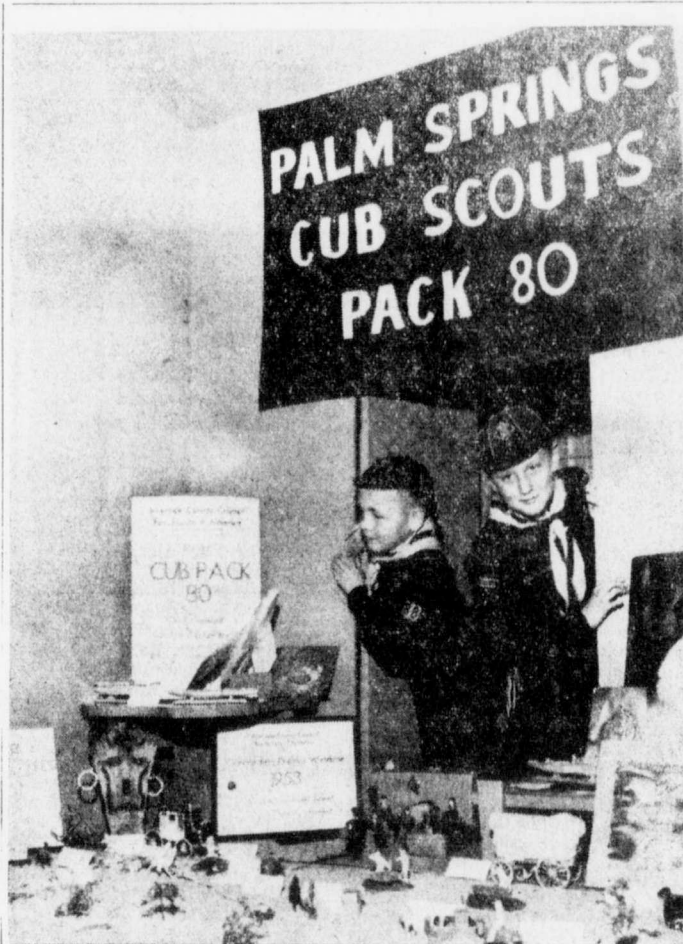

Dr. Blackstone, who said that he was speaking as an individual and not as a representative of any group, told those present that he was opposed to horse racing because of its connection with pari-mutuel betting.

"Seventy-five more blood donors are needed to complete our quota of 250 for the visit of the bloodmobile here Monday to collect blood for the fighting men in Korea," Mrs. Burnham Bigelow, Red Cross recruitment chairman, announced yesterday.

"We need these volunteers to insure that our quota of 220 pints of blood will be met," Mrs. Bigelow said in urging that anyone who wishes to give blood call the "life saving" number, 2701, and make an appointment.

The Two-County Medical Society Bloodmobile will be at the Wars Memorial building, 400 North Belardo road, between 10 a. m. and 3 p. m.

"The quota here provides enough blood for only a few hours in Korea," Mrs. Bigelow said.

LOCAL CUB SCOUTS WIN DISTRICT DISPLAY PRIZE

Palm Springs Cub Scouts, Pack 80, won the district award for the most outstanding window display in the county-wide contest during National Boy Scout Week, February 6 to 13.

All Dens in the Pack aided in preparation of the window, Cubmaster James Morton said.

Morton also paid tribute to the Den Mothers, Mrs. R. A. Young, Mrs. Allan Stone, Mrs. William Bruckner, Mrs. Billy Brister and Mrs. W. A. Brune, and Pack Mother, Mrs. Eugene Theriault, for their outstanding work in connection with the Cub Scouts.

The Thursday Night Club is sponsor of the Pack. The annual Blue and Gold dinner held by the Cubs and their parents will be February 2, Morton said.

Other window displays in the Village were: Troop 39, Wein-garten and Hough Insurance, William L. Larson, scoutmaster, and Troop 77, Shelley's, Vernon L. Baumgardner, scoutmaster.

A double identity caught up with George Vincent Mainardy, alias Robert J. Martin, 33, of Freeport, New York, when his description was identical with that given the Los Angeles police department for a grand theft suspect under the name of his alleged chauffeur.

Sgt. Durman Ordway discovered the double identity, when Mainardy and the manager of a local hotel came to the police station to sign a complaint against the "chauffeur," who Mainardy said took money which he had given him to deposit in the Security First National Bank of Los Angeles.

Mainardy had given the hotel manager two checks totaling $115, and a check with the Los Angeles bank revealed that no funds were available in his account. The manager then contacted Mainardy, and he reported that his chauffeur had taken the money which was to have been deposited.

They then went to the station to sign a complaint. Mainardy claimed he was innocent until confronted by Sgt. D. H. Ingram of the Los Angeles Bureau Fugitive department, and a representative of the Kierulff Company of Los Angeles, from which he is charged with taking $582 of corporation funds.

Mainardy, who had been a Village resident for nine days, will be prosecuted here on the bad check charge.

PAD IS STOLEN

CITY TO AID IN BATTLE ON POLIO

Palm Springs will be the second community in Riverside county to have the Red Cross extract gamma globulin from the blood contributed when the bloodmobile is here Monday to secure blood for the fighting men in Korea, Mrs. Burnham Bigelow announced today.

The extraction does not harm the blood in any way, and is used to combat infantile paralysis, Mrs. Bigelow said.

Chest Drive to be Handled Through Mail

House-to-House Campaign Plan Dropped this Year

Mail solicitation will be used this year to contact private residences in the Community Chest campaign instead of the home-to-home canvass used in other years, President William H. Smith announced today.

This change of policy was made by the board of directors because it felt that the public resents house-to-house solicitors, Smith said.

COMPLETE INFORMATION concerning the Chest and the six participating agencies has been included on a folder which is now being sent to all Villagers. Ladies of the community organized by Mrs. Earl Coffman and Mrs. Jack Sanders are now working to address envelopes which will carry the Community Chest message to all homes.

"We ask that you please respond promptly to this direct mail appeal so that we will not have to continue the campaign by other methods," Smith said. "Please do your share," he added. "Only $12,765.55 has been raised to date—just a little less than one-third of our budget requirement of $41,000."

SMITH POINTED OUT that the campaign does not provide quarters for the agencies connected with the drive—Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Center, Welfare and Friendly Aid, Boys' Club and Desert Museum—but merely goes to pay the operating expenses of the agencies.

"Without this help," he said, "there might not be either Boy or Girl Scouts in Palm Springs, or a Youth Center, or a museum, or a Health Center, or even a Boys' Club." You have everything to gain by supporting the local Chest drive and by urging your friends to join in, too.

Farrell Park

Petitions Filling Up Rapidly Today

More than 1000 signers have been secured on the petitions asking council to name the new North End Park in honor of Mayor Charles D. Farrell, Chairman James Morton announced today.

Petitions will continue to be circulated until the next council meeting, February 18, Morton reported.

"A petition really isn't necessary though the chairman said. The feeling and expression of the people of Palm Springs was clearly shown by their immediate reaction when Mayor Farrell submitted his resignation. This should be a mandate to council to honor Mayor Farrell."

Trails Map for Desert Planned

Plans for publication of a Trails Map of the Palm Springs vicinity for equestrians and hikers will be discussed tomorrow at a meeting at 4 p. m. at El Mirador. Desert Riders have called the meeting and representatives of all riding organizations, stables, city, Chamber of Commerce, Museum and others will be present.

The Desert Riders have spent more than $1000 in repairing the trails around the Village and now plan to print a map for the use of visitors, horsemen and hikers.

Supervisors Ready to Consider Charter

Supervisor William Jones said Tuesday at a meeting at Alvord that supervisors were ready to consider a charter plan for the county.

They will act as soon as sufficient demand for such a plan is voiced, he said.

HEADS DRIVE—Howard Morris will be chairman of the fund drive for the Palm Springs Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Howard Morris to Head Village Red Cross Drive

Howard Morris, owner of the Palm Springs Music company, this week was named chairman of the local fund drive for the American Red Cross.

The drive will start on March 1.

Mrs. Grace Pope has accepted the chairmanship for the women's division of the fund drive.

Outside of Riverside, Palm Springs has the highest quota in the county, $15,000. Riverside county's quota for 1953 has been set at $88,400.

Joe Gamble, who is Red Cross chairman here, said that the quota is necessarily higher this year due to the new blood program.

FT. LAUDERDALE, FLA. They don't like to talk "the seasons" down here either but they have one just like ours. Promoters of the Florida tourist business have, however, done something about their off season—the summer, of course. Now all they have to do is to get the natives used to saying "winter season" and "summer season" instead of THE season.

The promotion of southern Florida as a summer resort is one of the most successful and remarkable developments of its kind on record. For almost half a century Florida grew steadily as a winter resort. After the second World War it took on boom proportions. Over eighty miles of the East coast from Miami north was built almost solid in resort hotels, homes and business establishments. Swamps were converted into high class residential subdivisions. Apartment hotels were built by the thousands. All of them did well in January, February and March but most of them had to close in the summer because no one thought of going to Florida for a summer vacation. They thought it was too hot.

A few years ago the hotel and other business investors decided they could sell people on the idea of spending their summer vacations in Florida at bargain rates. More hotels and business establishments stayed open every summer and the summer tourist business increased year after year.

Refrigerated cooling has helped a lot. So has airplane travel. Hotels, transportation companies and restaurants got together and advertised "packaged deals" which they called "a millionaire's vacation on piggy bank income." Hotel rates were cut in half—and more. They didn't do very well the first year or two, but they stayed with the idea and continued the promotion—and it is now paying off handsomely.

Can this be done on a smaller scale in the Palm Springs desert resort area? Many people think it can—others say Palm Springs can never hope to do any summer tourist business. I think a summer clientele could be built up with the proper promotion and cooperation. It would have to be entered into with the idea that it would take three years to get it going on a really paying basis. It would take determination, courage and cooperation. Some have already made a start. If a lot of them would join in a whole-hearted campaign there is every reason to believe that Palm Springs could have a pretty good "summer tourist season" also.

On New Year's Eve, while everybody was singing, Auld Lang Syne, what was thumping through the World Almanac. When everyone else was shouting HAPPY NEW YEAR, he told me that 1953 had three (3) Friday, the 13ths. Being very superstitious he keeps his fingers crossed all day on those dates, and can't use the typewriter. Receiving many letters from him during the years and noting the typewritten output, can't see where the date has anything to do with it. When The Sun changed from Friday to Thursday I thought I was all through with this. But some loud-mouth had to suggest that any week in which Friday, the 13th falls is a good one in which to give the public a little respite. So I'm stuck with it.

In that starting doggerel, I mentioned that that was in a stew. I said "in." That's because he happened to overhear a conversation in which the annual St. Paul's Guild rummage sale was mentioned. Now that he has discovered it is in March he has Palm Springs will play host to the first labor convention in its history in February of 1954, it was announced this week by James Adams, chairman of the Riverside-San Francisco District Council of Carpenters and business agent for the Palm Springs local of the Carpenters Union.

More Salton Sea Claims on File

Shaler Wilder and several other owners of a half section of land along the Salton Sea Tuesday filed claims with Coachella Valley County Water district and Imperial Irrigation district for $10,000 as result of rising waters of the Sea.

Wilder said that in the past 90 days the rise in the sea has destroyed one-fifth of the value of his 320 acres.

Hospital Income Tops Expenses Directors Told

Income for January exceeded current expenses for the first time since the start of the fiscal year July 1, Hospital Administrator Robert Henwood reported at the monthly meeting of the board of directors Monday evening.

Income received was $2680.62 more than expenses during the month, he said.

HENWOOD REPORTED that there were 125 adult patients admitted during the month, with an average stay of 5.4 days. There were 12 births, with an average stay of four days. Occupancy percentage for the month was 62.4. There were 58 operations during the month, 33 minor and 25 major.

Directors authorized Paul Payne, engineer for the Palm Springs Water company, to prepare an irrigation plan for the hospital grounds using domestic water. Payne discussed the use of both domestic water and water from the Whitewater river.

HERBERT SAMPSON of Sampson and Curtis told the board of new fire insurance rates for hospitals, which reduces the cost 20 per cent, and explained the advantages and disadvantages of cancelling out present insurance policies and taking out new ones.

The board was informed of a plan whereby an anonymous person would donate pillow speaker radios to the hospital. They would be operated under a coin system, with proceeds to be used to purchase books for the medical library or equipment which the medical staff decided was needed by the hospital.

Gusty Gales Sweep Desert with Small Damage Here

Palm Springs area figured in a gusty windstorm which swept all of southern California last weekend but got off lucky according to reports from other places.

Only damage in the storm here reported to police was a telephone pole down at Tamarisk and Palm Canyon drive at 7 a. m. Sunday and a telephone line down on Arquilla road off Tamarisk. Power was cut off briefly in the city early Sunday morning.

FARTHER EAST in the desert sand blocked Highway 99 reducing visibility to zero between Indio and Coachella and also at the Y just east of Indio.

In Palm Springs, thick layers of dust were left wherever the wind could sweep in.

One freak of the storm was reported by Commander O. H. Small, 651 Paseo El Mirador at 10 a. m. He reported to police that an aluminum umbrella had blown into his yard.

At 11:08 a. m. Los Arboles hotel, 784 North Indian, several blocks away, reported an umbrella blown away.

IN THE DESERT the Civil Aeronautics Authority station at Thermal reported the wind velocity at 32 miles per hour at 9:28 a. m. Winds blew steadily in the San Geronimo pass area throughout the day at between 18 and 20 miles per hour.

The storm did not interfere with the Police Association Rodeo at the Polo Grounds Sunday where a large crowd turned out for the program.

Sun Air theater reported a long fence blown down by an exceptionally strong gust.

Weathermen reported the storm, general all over the southland, as caused by a low pressure system over the Pacific ocean to the northwest.

Glendale was hardest hit by the storm and in Los Angeles almost two score fires were reported due to fallen wires.

Why, I just bought that hat!" "Just bought it?" I echoed. "Why that has been in my way for years." "You exaggerate," he said. "I bought that just recently. In 1929." The last hat of his (a felt) which went to the Rummage sale last year and over which he lamented for three weeks, was taken to the Near East by G. K. Zait who bought it for a fancy price at the Rummage sale auction. The last word about the present hat from phat was: "Aw no, you know an Arab would look like hell in a Panama."

Must check the ladder and see if we have plenty of beans and then go up town to buy hamburger. At breakfast yesterday phat announced that he planned to go to Santa Anita today. Said he and Don were going. Well, for Don's sake I hope he doesn't listen to phat. I like phat's system of computing profit. Under it, there never is any loss. Before taking off he sets a maximum figure of what he may lose. Generally about $16, $2 a race. Sometimes a little extra for a side flyer. What he comes back with, then, of that $16 he figures he is winner. It's a good system. He never loses that way. But my system of picking them because they have pretty eyes or a glossy coat brings in just as much.

Well, since there is another Friday, the 13th, in March and almost time for phat to come home, I must hide my typewriter. You see, under his hunt and peck system, after he finds the letter he doesn't peck, he pounds.

Having always been told to be a lady I just grit my teeth and drive on when some careless driver suddenly pops open a door in front of me or zooms out of a parking space without a signal. Not so, phat. He just sticks his head out of the window and lets them have it. Then, if it's a big man, says: "Step on it, honey."

Board Votes County-Wide Zoning Plan

Suess Says Plan
May be Ready
by Year's End

County supervisors voted three to two Monday to order the preparation of a detailed zoning plan for all 7000 square miles of the county's unincorporated territory.

The order went to the county planning commission, and County Planning Director Tyler Suess said the commission may be able to complete the plan before the end of 1953.

EVEN THE SUPERVISORS who voted against the preparation of the plan agreed that the adoption of the plan would be one of the most important steps ever taken for better or worse by a board of supervisors in Riverside county.

It would give all the unincorporated territory of the county—which is more than 90 per cent of the county's total territory—the kind of zoning that is in effect in a highly-developed city like Riverside.

The unincorporated territory has zoning now, but almost all of it—more than 95 per cent, according to Suess—is a catch-all zoning as "M-3."

THE M-3 zone accommodates all in the one zone—residences, business, farms, and industry. Some kinds of industry must secure permits, after public hearings, before entering the zone, but it is agreed to be a relaxed zone.

The detailed plan will set aside some of the unincorporated territory for residences, other parts for industry, and other parts for agriculture.

Supervisor Irwin Hayden of Riverside was the supervisor who proposed the preparation of the plan. Supervisor Sherman Lewis of San Jacinto and Supervisor Homer Varner of Indio voted with him. Supervisor Chairman William Jones of Riverside and Supervisor Roman Warren of Riverside, voted against it.

THOSE WHO VOTED for the preparation of the plan said such a plan is necessary for the orderly development of the county and for the protection of the people who put land to use in the unincorporated territory.

They said that in the present state of things a man putting land to use in the unincorporated territory has no assurance that adjoining land will not be used in a conflicting way.

County Planning Director Suess said he will hold meetings in every part of the county to find out what the owners of property there feel is the best use of the land.

Agreement on Flood Water from Local Canyons Fails

Coachella Valley County Water District directors said Tuesday they're not impressed with either of two plans proposed for controlling Palm Canyon's flood waters, but President Ted Buck still held out hope for a joint plan supported both by this district and by Riverside county.

Directors J. W. Newman, flood control chairman, reported on an inspection three board members and two engineers made. He was critical of Riverside county's efforts.

NEWMAN SUMMED UP with: "We don't approve of anything." He added: "The county is making a waterway out of our area without attempting to work out a cooperative plan."

"Their plan awaits only the first flood to carry out the dike they're not planning to conserve the water, but to get rid of it. They should try to conserve the water, instead they are trying to send it into the Salton Sea, and it doesn't need it."

"Palm Springs already is crying for water. They're not planning to conserve water but to get rid of it. They should try to conserve the water, instead they are trying to send it into the Salton Sea, and it doesn't need it."

NEWMAN RECALLED that the U. S. Corps of Engineers made preliminary studies on Palm Canyon. He said he doesn't know why their studies were abandoned. He suggested "we find out what their plan is."

Newman said he advocates spreading the water from Palm Canyon and sinking it into the sand "back of Smoke Tree Ranch" before it crosses Highway 111 at Araby Point.

I RISE TO REMARK

By CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

If there had been any doubts in the minds of the people of the United States that we now have a President in fact (something we have had in name only for almost a decade), that doubt was dispelled between one and two p. m. on Monday, the 2nd of February.

President Eisenhower delivered his first speech on the "State of the Union," as suggested by the Constitution. It was the kind of speech a Congress, and the people it represents, have the right to expect from a President. It was firm, but reserved. It indicated the position the United States would take in matters now before us. It was received with enthusiasm in and out of the Congress.

When the President said simply, "Our policy, dedicated to making the free world secure, will envision all peaceful methods and devices—except breaking faith with our friends," there was applause; but when he followed that by saying, "I shall ask the Congress at a later date to join in an appropriate resolution making clear that this Government recognizes no kind of commitment contained in secret understandings of the past with foreign governments which permit this kind of enslavement," there was, literally a spontaneous shout of approval and applause. This means the repudiation of the Yalta agreement, in which the ailing Mr. Roosevelt turned over the honor and the assets of an ally, China, to a better bargainer, Russia, without consulting China.

ON THE HOME FRONT, the President said, equally simply, that the "grand labors" of the new administration included (among other things) the "establishment of a national administration of such integrity and such efficiency that its honor at home will insure respect abroad."

The most dynamic part of the President's speech was his statement that the U. S. Seventh Fleet would no longer be used to protect communist China. "This has meant," said the President, "that the United States Navy was required to serve as a defensive arm of Communist China." He then recited the refusals of the Chinese communists to cooperate with the United Nations in efforts towards peace, or even armistice.

In brief, we have been saying many of the things the President said. Now it appears we are about to do them, and to speak firmly, and without equivocation.

My subcommittee has started work. One of the first items before us was a request for a supplementary appropriation of approximately one million dollars to make a complete investigation of U. S. citizens employed by the United Nations. This means a check of about 1600 people. We will grant it, although we will suggest the use of money already appropriated to the Department of State; not new money from the taxpayers.

WHAT INTERESTED my subcommittee was the statement of the new U. S. Representative to the United Nations, Mr. Lodge, that the investigations by the F.B.I. and the Civil Service Commission, "would be more a question of security risk than disloyalty." You can be loyal, said Mr. Lodge, and still be a poor security risk.

This is in complete contrast to the policy of the retiring administration. The Civil Service Commission has, in the past, been permitted to consider only if the employee was, at that moment, a communist. When Mr. Acheson testified at the final meeting of the House Judiciary committee, before he left, he maintained that American communists in the U.N. would not endanger our security. When he was reminded by Representative Billings (of California) that 50 U.S. employees of the U.N. had refused to answer the question, if they were or ever had been members of the communist party, the then Secretary of State said, rather casually, that he "wasn't particularly aware of the situation."

There has been a change in Washington!

Sideline

By PHIL STONE

●Palm Springs' placid desert air in recent weeks has been set in motion by two stimulating breaths from Broadway... not the Technicolor musical Broadway of nearby Hollywood but the legitimate white-lights-and-Lindy's Broadway of New York after curtain time.

One of these reminders of New York's distant, dizzy urban entertainments was the visit of Abel Green, the able editor of that bible of show business, Variety. On the way to seasonal conferences with Variety's Hollywood office, Green stopped off in Palm Springs long enough to soak up some desert sun and soak in the pool at the smart La Serena resort operated by George Brown, former publicity head for Paramount Pictures.

●The second, less fleeting reminder, is the popular Palm Springs Playhouse, the "theater-in-the-round" group of professional actors brought here each year by Chicago's Herb Rogers. Rogers is a dark, slender young man whose mild personal manner masks an astute appreciation of good theater and how to get it... even how to make a predominantly movie-minded community like Palm Springs enjoy legitimate theater enough to pay for it.

●Over the past several years, Rogers has assembled a cast of dependable professionals and promising newcomers (all proper members of Actors Equity) and worked out a year-round system under which the company plays Summers under canvas in suburban Highland Park, a cool lakeside drive out of Chicago, and Winters under cover in the 400-seat Pavilion on the million-dollar Municipal Polo Grounds.

Since he's as honest as any other businessman, and as struggle-conscious as any other theatrical producer, stage or film, Rogers is very ready to admit the first year in Palm Springs wasn't easy.

Desert year-rounders used to spending their leisure hours in swimming pools or on horseback didn't find a Tenthous Theater so exciting. Winter visitors from metropolitan areas further east didn't find legitimate theater such a novelty, and weren't much at ease in a theater where you neither dressed formally nor enjoyed the conversational exhibition of the lobby parade between the acts.

●But Rogers wanted a Palm Springs playhouse, and so did a determined group of desert residents who in succeeding years launched their own drive for season-ticket patrons and supported Rogers' fight to lease the city-owned Polo Grounds Pavilion on a percentage basis, installing his own lighting system and seating. Success didn't spring from the wings with the indoor location, or even with a succession of good plays capably presented over two more seasons. But success certainly was in the air this season when a capacity house saw the opening night of "The Happy Time" and week-long patronage was heavy enough to

NOTED PIANIST—Ted Mossman, noted pianist-composer, who will play at the Tennis Club this week and will appear there in concerts later. The composer of such hit songs as "Till the End of Time," Mossman has been at the Palm Springs Biltmore for the past three months.

Five New Homes Begun in Week

Home building continues brisk in Palm Springs, the city building department reported Monday.

Five new dwellings marked the latest permits issued. They follow:
J. I. Cavett, 1129 Calle De Maria, dwelling, $27,000.
Arthur Coffey, 175 Ocotillo, dwelling, $11,000.
Allen Hathaway, 855 Avenida La Evoluta, dwelling, $10,000.
R. C. Higgins, 1177 Mesquite, dwelling, $24,000.

use up all the programs while there were still three performances to go.

●Like any other producer, from Belasco to the borscht circuit, Rogers has staged some presentations which might delicately be termed disappointing... but it's a credit to him and his versatile actor-director Michael Ferrall that the disappointments have been so few in a repertory in which a basic cast of six have coped with Coward's "Blithe Spirit" and Miller's "Death of a Salesman," with "Come Back, Little Sheba" and Shaw's "Pygmalion," with Tennessee Williams' "Glass Menagerie" and Harlowe Manners' "Peg O' My Heart." All, remember, on the time-honored stock company routine of one in production and one in rehearsal.

It doesn't need a crystal ball to prophesy that persistent young producer Herb Rogers will have no cause to blush for the shape of his cast or the size of his audience. Palm Springs isn't yet "Broadway-on-the-Sand Dunes"... but it's learning, production by production, to be a show town.

29 Palms Group Plans Statewide Equestrian Event

Horsemen from throughout California have been invited to a group sponsored by Equestrian Trails to be held at Twenty-nine Palms February 21, 22 and 23, first of what is planned as an annual event.

Mrs. Lois Kneel, president of the Desert Corral 29, the riding chapter in Twenty-nine Palms, and her husband, Chet Kneel, will be in charge of arrangements for the state-wide meeting.

The Kneels were prize winners in last weekend's big Rodeo parade here.

Vice President Fred Healey said a 25-mile ride has been charted for Sunday, February 22, including a chuck-wagon breakfast at the recreation center, and a noonday dinner on the trail.

Mrs. Kneel said from 250 to 300 horsemen are expected with many trophies and ribbons to be presented winning mounts. The horses will be cared for on picket lines at the County Recreation Center. Among groups planning to be represented at the roundup are the Long Beach Mounted Police, whose equestrian group was one of the California entries in the recent inaugural parade in Washington, D. C.

ENTRANTS will include the winners of the recent Mexican road race, and top drivers from the east coast.

Advance sale of tickets for both days which includes special parking and private entrance is now under way, Cary said. Admission is $1.50, and orders may be sent to the Sports Car Racing association, Inc., 9717 Santa Monica boulevard, Beverly Hills, up to March 15. SUDS ADVANCE GUARD DUE IN VILLAGE FEB. 22

First contingent of the Seattle Rainiers baseball team will arrive here for Spring training on February 22, Vice President Torchy Torrance announced today.

In the first group will be Field Manager Bill Sweeney, General Manager Leo Miller, Coach Eddie Taylor and Trainer Doc Richards.

Fourteen pitchers and five catchers will arrive here February 24, and the rest of the team will come in on March 1.

THE ENTIRE BALL CLUB will stay at the Del Tahquitz hotel this year, the first time that the entire team has been quartered in one place.

Quite a few new faces have been added this year, Torrance reported, which it is hoped will bring the club up higher than the third place finish last year.

"We have high hopes," Torrance said, "since during the time we have been training in Palm Springs the team has done pretty well—winning the pennant once and finishing in the first division the other three times."

THE VICE PRESIDENT of the club paid tribute to the climate here, saying that "training in Palm Springs gives us an opportunity to work out every day without worry about the weather—something no other place can boast of. All the time we've been here, we've never lost a day."

Palm Springs area residents will have a chance to see the ball club in action the first time on Sunday, March 8, when Bill Veeck brings his St. Louis Browns here for an exhibition.

SEVEN GAMES are scheduled here this year—three with the Browns, one with the Chicago White Sox, and the other three with Pacific Coast League teams. Torrance and Club President Emil Sick and his wife have been in Palm Springs for several weeks making arrangements for the club's Spring training.

The club last Spring renewed its three-year contract for use of the Polo Grounds.

Winless Teams Clash as Indians Travel to Perris

The battle for the cellar will be held this Friday night when Coach Clare Ballagh's Indians travel to San Jacinto.

Both teams are winless in conference play this season, and this game is rated a tossup. The Tigers are more impressive in offensive play, 205 points to 141 for the Indians, but Palm Springs has a defensive edge, 250 to 303.

THE INDIANS continued their practice last Friday of faltering in second half play when they dropped a 42 to 27 decision to Beaumont. First half score was only 15 to 14 in favor of the Cougars.

While the Indians were losing, San Jacinto was unimpressive in dropping a 63 to 42 decision to Perris.

OTHER CONFERENCE action tomorrow night will have undefeated Hemet meeting Coachella, Beaumont playing at Banning and Perris at Elsinore. Hemet must win to take undisputed championship of the league, as both once-beaten Banning and Elsinore will be highly favored to win their games.

Two Big Stakes Slated Saturday at Santa Anita

During this seventh week of Santa Anita's highly successful Winter racing season there will be presented today, the holiday features of the Fourth George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award to Eddie Arcaro in a public ceremony at 12:15 p. m. in the paddock, followed by the $15,000 Lincoln's Birthday Handicap.

Saturday will witness the running of the 22nd and 23rd stakes on the pretentious Santa Anita program. The big-name horses, headed by Mark-Ye-Well, The Maturity winner, are lining up to go to the post in the $25,000 San Antonio Handicap at 1 1/4 miles, which is the last important test before the bugle blows for the $100,000-guaranteed Santa Anita Handicap on February 28. The $20,000 Santa Susana Handicap is a special at 1 1/4 miles for three-year-old fillies.

During the five days, which started Tuesday, important overnight daily features will be presented for the Sunnyslope Ranch of Riverside, the Royal Oaks Farm of Hidden Valley, the Arcadia Kiwanis Club, the Walkey Farm of Riverside, the National Date Festival at Indio and the Val Verde Ranch of Loomis.

On Saturday of next week will come one of the highlights of far-Western racing—the 16th running of the $100,000-added Santa Anita Derby. It will bring to the post the most imposing field of three-year-olds ever to perform at the track in Arcadia. Preceding it on Wednesday will be the $15,000 San Luis Rey Stakes.

Committee Hears Elk Official on Plans for Lodge

Ted W. Nelson, Redlands, district deputy grand exalted ruler, BPOE, addressed a group of 31 Villagers, acting as a committee seeking establishment of an Elks lodge in Palm Springs, Friday evening at American Legion hall.

Nelson explained the procedure and requirements for the formation of an Elks lodge to the group. He said that, at the pace the group is now going, they should be a full-fledged Elks lodge by June.

The group will meet again this evening at American Legion hall to further organization steps. A club will be formed and temporary officers elected.

The meeting will be an open one for any who wish to join in the movement.

At last Friday's meeting Charles Valentino, prime mover in the plan for an Elks lodge here, presided and Ray Lusby was secretary.

Judge Yankwich to Speak Monday at Jewish Center

Monday at 8:15 p. m., Judge Leon R. Yankwich, chief judge of the United States district court for the southern district of California, will speak at the Jewish Community Center on the subject: "How Shall We Treat the Offender?"

Judge Yankwich has tried many famous criminal cases during his career on the bench, among which were Harry Thomas Thompson, accused of peacetime espionage; Arthur Bell and his Mankind United Group for wartime espionage; and one of the first cases under the Smith Act, under which the Communists are now being prosecuted. Among the most important civil cases was the one involving the ownership of Elk Hills oil fields. He is an authority on anti-trust law, and has recently handled the case of United States vs. Fallbrook Utility District, and others, involving the water rights of the government to the lands it bought for Camp Pendleton in San Diego county.

The lecture is one of a series sponsored by the Jewish Center at 332 West Alejo road, for members and friends.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON EXPLAINS SOUL

The Sunday Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Soul" in all Christian Science churches explains and illustrates how the understanding of God, Soul, business and health mankind.

In the Golden Text the Psalmist sings (130:6), "My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning."

A passage from Matthew (15:30, 31) relates that great multitudes came to Jesus "having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, . . . and he healed them: Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see; and they glorified the God of Israel."

In the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation" (p. 210).

Chamber of Commerce

Monthly meeting of chamber of commerce directors was held last week at the Town Hall. Leo Dornier who has recently built a large home in Cathedral City Highlands was elected to fill a vacancy on the board of directors, to serve until the next regular election, the last Tuesday in March. Directors L. C. Lewis, Paul Clark and Leslie Kelley were appointed a committee to investigate a new type of district recently authorized by state law. Lewis stated that such a district was under consideration at Palm Desert and could be used as a legal method of levying taxes for community development such as street lighting, etc. Directors Emil Greener, Claude Cobb, Paul Clark and president Edward Biles were appointed to meet with representatives of the Lions club and Women's club to lay plans for the annual Cactus Jumpers Jamboree or a substitute community affair. Secretary Robert Sherrill announced that the Cathedral City Development company would allow use of a vacant lot owned by it on Van Fleet between C and D streets for use as a children's ball ground if the chamber would help provide a backstop, fencing, etc. This was agreed to.

W. R. Hillery brought up for consideration the providing of a scenic road on top of the flood control channel and consented to act as advisor, in his capacity as chairman of County Flood control district number 6, to a committee composed of Claude

Cobb, Edward Biles and Emil Greener. Publicity chairman Clark reported that the Scotch light directional sign on Ramon at Date Palm drive and the large bulletin boards at the east and west entrances to Cathedral City had been repainted. Membership chairman Kelley reported that there were still a number who had not remitted for this year's dues and urged that they fulfill that part of their civic duty as soon as possible.

P. O. Expansion

Postmaster John S. Hillery reports that the addition, doubling the size of the Cathedral City post office, is now completed but not occupied. The post office has received the following items from the government this past month: A new Smith-Corona typewriter, Victor adding machine (special post office two-tape type), oak desk, two chairs, government form and filing cabinet, mail distribution case and general delivery paper case. These items are in use despite the cramped quarters.

Equipment on hand awaiting the moving date, consists of 550 post office boxes from the old India office, a large parcel post table, primary distribution table, sorting table, second distribution case, three large locked cabinets for C.O.D. mail, envelopes, etc., four clerk lockers, strip label case and facing slip case. Equipment for the new screen-line is being supplied in part by 22 other post offices from Connecticut to Florida and West. Manufactured panels are due to be shipped from New Britain, Connecticut, on or before April 19. It is hoped that the work will be completed by the end of May. Some 250 residents are now waiting for the boxes to be installed. Postal receipts for 1952 were $18,800.50. For 1953, $21,867.39, an increase of $3066.89 or 16.3% over last year.

Successful Show

The third annual Style Show held by the Cathedral City Women's club last week at the Desert Air hotel was an outstanding success both financially and socially, according to Mrs. Edna Cobb, ways and means chairman. About one hundred and fifty members and guests enjoyed the showing of the latest in desert wear by the two Cathedral City shops, Desert Air Dress Shop and Scott's House of Western Wear. The day was perfect and the sparkling swimming pool made a perfect background for the lovely Summer clothes displayed by the following models: For Scott's, Mary Lee, Jane Hamilton, Georgetown Bradley, Malzie Squires, Frances Hedgecock, Marjorie Ballagh, Mr. and Mrs. Van Dorn, Ben Scott and the little tots, Sharon Squires, Linda Bradley, Johnny Hamilton and Mary Jane Lee. For the Desert Air Dress Shop, Euleta Jackson, Westre Blakeley, Pearl Palmer, Leah Lewis, Jackie Martin, Iva Moon, Bessie Kelley and Inez Southone. Mary Beazley modelled one of the Marjorie Ballagh originals.

The club, says Mrs. Cobb, expresses its appreciation to Elora Kenyon, owner of the Cathedral Beauty Shop for the hair styling of many of the models, and to the Hill Cleaning Shop opposite the post office for the pressing of all the clothes worn by the models. The broadcasting system used was by courtesy of the firm of Bernhard and Waller, the television and radio shop in Cathedral City, and installed by Carroll Waller.

Ken Draper, pianist for the Desert Air hotel, played background music throughout the entire show, and then delighted the audience throughout the refreshment period with favorite numbers called from the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Noyes, managers of the Desert Air hotel, made the entire facilities of the hotel available for models and guests. Mrs. Cobb gives enthusiastic praise to her two committeemen, Mrs. LaVerle Ring and Mrs. Marjorie Ballagh for the coordination of the show. The tea hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Eleanor McNamara and Mrs. Gwenn Mayfield and they thank the many members who baked cakes for the event.

Award for Troop

Cathedral City's Boy Scout Troop 81 received the award for the largest attendance, by families, 51 persons, at the Court of Honor held at Legion hall in Palm Springs last Thursday. The attendance ribbon was presented to Tommy Larstead as senior patrol leader. The troop is sponsored by the Cathedral City Lions club. Representing the club at the Court of Honor and at the potluck dinner preceding it were Lion committeemen George Miller, Francis Wood, Jack Hillery, Mike Gordon and President James Wolseth. Scout First Class badges were presented Dave Dellinger and Marvin Gallarani. Second Class badges went to Wilen Anderson, Don Faulkner, Mike Woody, Rodney Gorges was the recipient of two merit badges. A signal honor was bestowed on Gershwin Haltman who in addition to a life award received a book as a special award for the scout in this area who best upholds the scout ideals.

The Cathedral City Community Church Women's Auxiliary is meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edna Peterson, Desert Cove Ranch. Mrs. Jacob Wiems of Hemet will speak on the California Institute for Women where her husband was formerly director. The regular monthly meeting of church officers will be held Tuesday evening, February 17. On Wednesday, February 18, a potluck supper at the church is open to all. H. W. Clatworthy of Estes Park and Palm Springs will show pictures of Europe. Mr. Clatworthy has a world-wide reputation as a photographer.

Valentine Carnival

A Valentine Carnival will be held Friday evening, February 13, at the Cathedral City school grounds from 5 to 9. Mrs. Edna Hileman is chairman of the carnival, which is the annual fund-raising event of the School Mothers' club. The cafeteria room will feature home-made pies, which will be sold whole or by the slice. There will also be hot dogs, ice cream and drinks. Each room will feature a concession. There is no charge for admission to the grounds or the classrooms and all villagers and visitors are invited to attend and visit the rooms and to join in the fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seymour of Corvallis, Oregon, were visitors of the Carroll Wallers last weekend. Mr. Seymour was for many years the acting head of the 4H Clubs for the State of Oregon.

A meeting of the Cathedral City School club was held Thursday, February 5. Entertainment was furnished by Ben Patrone, instrumental instructor for the Palm Springs Unified School district and five of his violin students taking part. The students participating were Bobby Gordon, Linda Scott, Harold Duncan, Carroll Miller and Linda McManaman. Mr. Patrone explained to the audience the instructions on learning a new piece which was very interesting. Carl Mayfield gave a talk and a showing of colored slides of Mexico.

The Cactus Jumpers Square Dance club meets tomorrow night at the Katherine Finch school in Palm Springs at 8 p. m. All square dancers are welcome as the dance is open to the public and the club promises that there will be lots of fun. The caller is to be David Van Netta.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hillery have received word from their son, Lieutenant Robert Hillery, that he has received a new assignment as commanding officer of a V.T. Fuse detachment connected with a research and development division of the Ordnance department, U.S.A. He is stationed at White Oak, Maryland, which is 14 miles from Washington, D.C.

The many Cathedral City friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robertson will be interested in the announcement of the engagement of their daughter Nyleen Ide, to Raymond McSorley, presently attached to the Navy base in San Diego. Nyleen is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Peterson of Desert Cove Ranch and lived here with her parents since early childhood. There are no plans for the wedding until after her graduation next year from high school.

Discover for yourself why
good water makes better beer

TRAVELERS ARE QUICK to notice that drinking waters, from place to place, have decidedly different flavors. It is only natural that some types of water will make a more refreshing, more pleasing beverage than others. In brewing beer, the nature of the water used is of the utmost importance, for only a few rare types of water will extract the more elusive, delicate flavors from premium hops and grains. Olympia's artesian water... obtained from natural subterranean wells beneath our own property... is recognized as one of those excellent types. "It's the Water" that gives Olympia Beer distinctive character, and it is the water, too, that enables us to make each bottle of Olympia taste as good today as the first Olympia brewed in 1896.

Notes from the Library

HE SHIPWRECKED by Graham Greene.

This early novel which went practically unnoticed when it first appeared in 1935, has as its theme the utter ineffectualness of the single individual when he is opposed by the machine, the cold concrete and steel monolithic organization that is so symbolic of modern society. In the case of Anthony Farrant even dishonesty, or any other human frailty, blackmail, etc., was no fit match for the coldly indifferent machine which liquidated all who opposed it. Krogh, the Swedish industrialist, who had built "the machine," the vast network of businesses which he alone controlled, was himself the victim of his creature.

THE SOJOURNER by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings.

The warmly human story of Isahel Linden, a small farmer during the period from 1860 up to the second World War. Isahel is the "stranger and sojourner" here on this planet; essentially lonely and often inarticulate, he is one of those truly "good" men.

THE BEST PLAYS 1951-1952. Edited by John Chapman.

Ten plays as representative of Broadway as Theater itself, including "I am a Camera" by John Van Druten, "Mrs. McThing" by Mary Chase, "The Fourposter," "The Shrike," and many others.

THE FOND AND HIS HUNDRED WIVES by Rebecca Rhyer.

At hasty first glance this title might mislead one into thinking it said: Fun With A Hundred Wives. However it is actually the story of one woman's arduous journey into Africa to investigate the polygamous practices of the Fong of Laakom, an absolute ruler of a tribe of Cameroonian natives. Popular anthropology is fun!

THE LAST RESORTS, A Portrait of American Society at Play by Cleveland Amory.

All of society's fabulous playgrounds, with riches, romances, scandals and skeletons, from the Duke and Duchess of Windsor to Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, described with good humor by the famous author of "The Proper Bostonians."

THIS IS CHICAGO. Edited by Albert Halper.

A cross-section of one of the most written-about cities in the United States is presented in this anthology which includes works from Ferber, Algren, Sandburg, Farrell, Anderson, Addams, and many others.

Yo Yo Finalists to Compete for Honors Saturday

Sixteen finalists in the Yo Yo contest will compete at 2 p.m., Saturday, for the local championship and the right to represent the Village in the district event at Los Angeles.

Two winners will be selected. All awards will be made following the contest.

Judges will be Robert Allen, west coast representative of Duncan Meters, sponsor of the state contest; Ted McKinney, Youth Center director; and Howard Haddock, city recreational director, local sponsors.

The 16 finalists and their schools are: Art Sanchez and Bob Rech, St. Theresa; Donald Burke, Jack Pellun, David Fox, Barry Frazier and Billy Brune, Katherine Finch; Jimmy Harris, Paul Salvador, Floyd Velazquez, Rodney Higgins, John Salvador, Tony Velazquez, Charles Jordan and Jim Crawford, Nellie Coffman and high school; Michael Helm, Frances Stevens.

On the Trails

"My Kingdom for a Horse" is the phrase that has echoed down through the years—mostly in jest—but here in the desert comes into its own. Walt Disney may not trade his kingdom for a horse—but he trades many busy hours of it for hours on our trails. He rides from the Smoke Tree Ranch Stables. George Holley of Holley Carbuters, has been doing the same.

Helen Kinnaman led a group of eleven hardy adventurers up to Little Paradise recently. Since Helen has been known as the Cactus Kid. (Get details from Helen.)

Since asking in this column that some authoritative person see the need of trail crosswalks on Ramon and Sunrise Way—Gus Kettmann and Russell Rink—"bless them"—have had them painted at the crossings on both streets. Now if only some such person from the Highway Department, will do as much at the crossing on Highway 111 at Sunrise Way, they will also receive our "blessings."

James K. Pierce and wife Lenore, new members of the Desert Riders and the Los Compadres, have purchased Princess Elizabeth, the beautiful five gaited mare at the Desert Inn Stables.

THE DESERT RIDERS chose the entrance to Tahquitz Canyon for a recent breakfast so that an inspection of the canyon trail could be made by the riders. Mr. Lee Odle, Indian Agent, was on hand to discuss the work, and pointed out the difficulties encountered on the project. Cement was transferred from trucks to pack-horse to wheel barrows. But two fine stream crossings have been completed. The trail up to the Falls is now one that any ordinary trail horse can make, however it is not advisable to take costly and high-spirited animals into the canyon as there are still rough spots where any confusion might lead to serious injuries to both horse and rider.

Cute Jeanie Green, as guest singer, gave her one-and-only version of "All Pooped Out" to the delight of thirty-seven riders and guests. The Henry Dolards brought J. G. Skidmore from Lake Forest, Illinois. . . . The Russell Hills had Maxine Gerhart, just back from Ohio for the rest of the season. . . . Patty Owen of Arcadia and Franklin Cole of New York were guests of Mrs. John Lucareni. . . . Frenchy Small brought Neil Newman of Santa Barbara and Julie Elbie.

Roundup Boss Tony Burke announced it had been voted upon to incorporate the Desert Riders. As the Desert Riders are a non-profit organization, this was considered a wise move, and will offer protection to the group as a whole. Roy Colegate is now in the process of drawing up the papers.

See you on the trails.

Revolution

Was more than a word to them

TWO STATESMEN AND AN INVENTOR—

Each contributed in his own way to make America great. Each played a part in a revolution.

WASHINGTON won a revolution for freedom. LINCOLN reaffirmed that freedom by defeating a revolution. EDISON hatched a 20th Century revolution by giving America a new power—electricity.

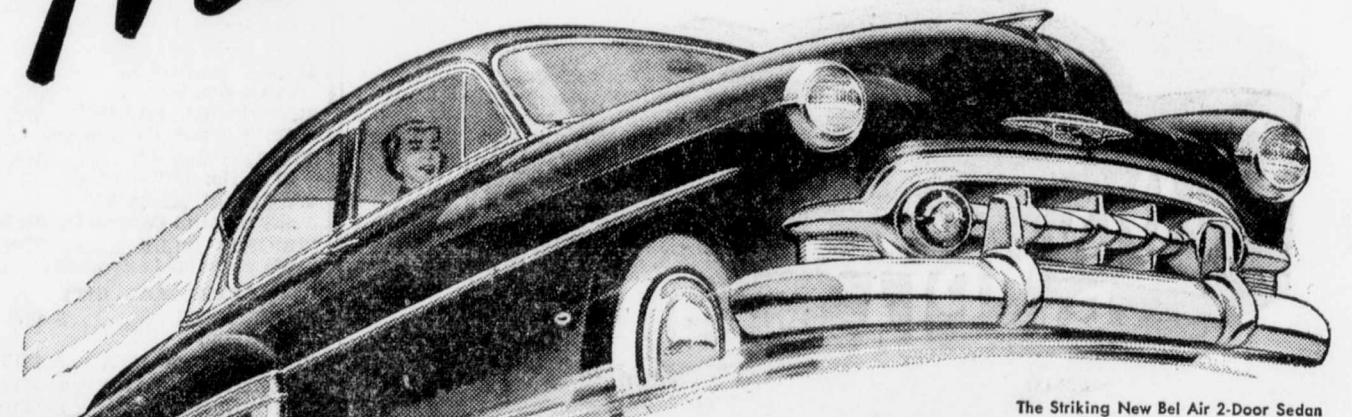

The new power has helped us in two wars to preserve the freedom for which Washington and Lincoln fought. It is appropriate that we celebrate in the same month the birthdays of three great men whose works reflected their devotion to a common ideal—freedom.

This newspaper invites comment by readers on affairs of interest to the community. Communications should be limited to 250 words and signed, although initials only will be used in the newspaper if so requested. Please use one side of paper and do not crowd writing.

APPRECIATES SUPPORT

Oliver B. Jaynes, publisher, Desert Sun:
Having resigned effective February 28, 1953, I take this opportunity to thank you and your very excellent newspapers for their wonderful support of the department and your interest in its welfare since I took over in 1945.

Today, I feel it can be said with all honesty, that the community has a first class police department—backed up by Reserves, Mounted and Aero Squadrons—which is competent to do the job required.

Having been a member of the Fourth Estate for ten years, and had the opportunity to write a column for you recently, I know so well the incalculable value of press support. Please accept my sincere thanks.

I'm sure too, having the welfare of the community at heart, that you will continue your interest in the affairs of the Village of which we are all so proud.

AUGUST G. KETTMANN,
Chief of Police.

PRaises CHIEF

Editor, The Sun: I have submitted the following letter to the city council and I ask you to print a copy.

Honorable City Council: As a Villager and taxpayer of Palm Springs, I urge that you do not accept the resignation of Police Chief August Kettmann on the following grounds:

1. I have observed law enforcement in many towns, cities, states, and foreign countries in the past thirty-eight years and during my two and a half years' residence here, I have observed a very difficult situation handled in a most admirable manner. As you quite well know, the action and cooperation obtained from various personnel of any organization must necessarily have been set forth and directed by the head of the organization, who in this case is none other than our Chief of Police. Having a real civic interest in our local community, I consider a Winter resort such as this presents a most difficult problem in the handling of law enforcement.

2. Complete disaster for Palm Springs would emanate from rough or improper handling of our local guests who come here for fun and have no malicious intent at heart.

3. Neither could we exist as a Winter resort if thugs and, people of criminal intent were permitted to prowl here. On a very recent occasion, a drunken prowler came to my home at 5 o'clock in the morning and on a call to the police this was handled immediately and very efficiently by the officers on duty at that time.

4. The traffic situation is handled in a most efficient manner and your records will indicate that the special attention to the safety of school children is most effective.

Whatever reason that Chief Kettmann may have for submitting his resignation, I feel a real effort should be made to reconcile it if possible. I also feel, that for the ultimate good of Palm Springs, the heads of the Police and Fire departments should answer only to the elected City Council as they reflect truly the will of the voters and will endeavor to answer as their elected representatives.

RAY C. INGRAM,

730 Mesquite avenue.

P. S.—I wish to add that if any special city tax is necessary to pay our police personnel an amount commensurate with their value, I would be glad to subscribe to it.

Court of Honor Advances 29 Boy Scouts of Village

Second pot luck supper and Court of Honor of Palm Springs District, Boy Scouts of America, was held at American Legion Hall last week. Approximately 175 parents, relatives, friends, and Scouts were in attendance.

Troop 39, William Larson, scoutmaster, was in charge of the Court and program. Following the opening ceremony the attendance ribbon was awarded to Troop 81. Other awards included rank advancement as follows:

EAGLE SCOUT—Troop 59: Gary Lampman.

LIFE SCOUT—Troop 81: Gershwin Haltman.

FIRST CLASS—Troop 81: Marvin Gallenani, David Dillinger; Troop 56: David Self.

MERIT BADGES—Troop 81: Rodney Gorges, Troop 56: David Self, Dick Compton, Troop 39: Kenneth Sanders, Roger Williams, Ronnie Massengill.

Troop 77, newly organized and sponsored by the Kiwanis, gave a demonstration, followed by Troop 59's demonstration of first aid carries.

IMMEDIATELY following the closing of the regular Court of Honor, a special Eagle Scout Court of Honor was opened by Jacques Crommelin, chairman of the District Advancement committee. He introduced Carl Lykken, newly elected president of the Riverside County Council and a winner of the Silver Beaver.

Lykken called Gary Lampman to the platform to receive his Eagle Award. The Eagle Badge was pinned on Scout Lampman by his mother and he in turn pinned a miniature Eagle Badge on her. Mr. and Mrs. Lampman received many congratulations following the award, inasmuch as their son, Clayton, had received his Eagle Award at an earlier Court of Honor this season.

Jaycee to Hear Strebe Tonight

George Strebe, co-chairman of the Desert Circus, will be the speaker at the Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting tonight at the Wars Memorial building.

REALTOR—Peter B. Sheptenko, local realtor, who this week announced a large realty transaction involving Tachevah Estates.

Tachevah Vista Tract Figures in Large Trade

Peter B. Sheptenko this week reported a $250,000 real estate exchange involving a fourteen-unit apartment building in Santa Monica owned by Mrs. E. Lamb Blatt Petnick, who exchanged her property for a home and fourteen lots in the Tachevah Vista tract owned by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Yankwich. Although the Yankwichs have disposed of their subdivision they are still making Palm Springs their winter home.

Mrs. Petnick is no new comer to Palm Springs as she owned a home here a few years ago, and has been looking forward to getting back here to create and build modern distinctive desert homes. Mrs. Petnick has called Palm Springs and Santa Monica "home" for many years having maintained residences in both cities. She is now centering all of her activities in Palm Springs exclusively.

The new homes to be built here are being designed by Walter White, who has had wide acclaim for his outstanding ability in designing homes for the utmost enjoyment in desert living, said Sheptenko. The building contractor will be Gene Roberts, well known for his fine construction in many nearby desert areas. Construction of two model homes is expected to get under way this week.

Child Hurt

Bumped by Truck
While at Play

Arthur Mediano, 7, suffered minor injuries and was treated at Desert Hospital when he was struck by a panel truck driven by John Krabbe, 122 North El Segundo, at 10:45 a. m., Sunday, on Cedar street, police reported.

Krabbe told investigating officers that while he was traveling west on Cedar street, a group of small boys ran out of an alley, and one ran in front of the truck. He reported that he applied the brakes, and came to a stop as the right front fender of the truck bumped the young boy.

Recreation Center Planned for Desert Hot Springs

Mrs. Evelyn C. Knudsen, well known Desert Hot Springs realtor, announced this week that she had taken steps to give her community something it had lacked—a recreation center. She has purchased a large hall on Pearson boulevard and will open it with a Valentine's party Saturday. There will be a program, light refreshments and square dancing. No admission will be charged. Civic-minded Desert Hot Springs women have volunteered to aid in the project and will see that the hall is kept open daily for cards, chess, dominoes and so on. It is also planned to organize community sings.

"We hope to receive enough financial help to purchase folding chairs, card-tables, a long dinner table and volunteer carpenters to build a stage where entertainments may be given and a Little Theater group formed later," she said. "The hall will be for rent to evening meetings of organizations and we hope to make a cultural center for lectures and the like. However, without the support and cooperation of local residents the hall cannot be maintained financially. All that is desired is that the Center will be self-supporting on a non-profit basis as a clubhouse for the good of the community." Mrs. Knudsen added that donations of unused folding chairs or a long dining table will be greatly appreciated.

With Hildy Crawford

Something new under the sun . . . will be the All-Hawaiian fashion show . . . to be given in the South Pacific Room and around the pool deck at El Mirador . . . on the afternoon of February 22 . . . The Village . . . which has seen many fashion shows . . . has seen nothing like this . . .

There will be beautiful girls wearing sarongs . . . and handsome men wearing the bright-hued, color-splashed clothing designed for Waikiki . . . but just as suitable for desert wear . . . Palm Springs has palm trees . . . blue skies and flowering gardens . . . desert sand instead of beach sand . . . no surf, but plenty of swimming pools . . . and you come around Windy Point instead of Diamond Head . . . Two of the world's spectacular resorts . . . and for this afternoon . . . El Mirador will bring Waikiki to Palm Springs . . .

The colorful show . . . will be emceed by Waltha Clarke, who lived in the Islands for so many years, and who owns the Waltha Clarke Hawaiian shop in the Desert Farmers Market . . . In addition . . . Carl Schroeder, El Mirador's swimming pro, is bringing his Olympic swimming team . . . for an exhibition performance . . . and at the bar in the South Pacific Room . . . Pat Brillante, mixologist . . . will feature his "Hawaiian Dream" and other tropical drinks . . . There will be dancing during the early evening hours . . . El Mirador is bringing Waikiki to Palm Springs . . . and there's no admission charge . . . Aloha . . .

Village Vignettes

Around town . . . Hedda Hopper, movie columnist and erstwhile film favorite . . . riding around the Village in Bud Lewis' red Jaguar . . . The Sam Goldwyns and the Robert Sherwoods (he is one of America's leading playwrights) . . . lunching poolside at the Racquet Club . . . and at a nearby table Lauren Bacall (Mrs. Humphrey Bogart) and her handsome little son . . . An over ripe female in shorts and bra . . . gawking at the Village hermit as he walked barefooted along Palm Canyon drive . . . and thinking HE looked funny . . . The chef in a downtown eatery . . . muttering . . . hot cakes should sell like tickets . . . He must have heard about the gal who sold $1000 worth of tickets to the City of Hope benefit dinner . . . in one day . . . Van Johnson . . . howling with laughter . . . as he watched Doodles and Skeeter . . . at the Saddle and Sirolo . . . The David Roses are at the Racquet Club . . . He is just back from England . . . his 88th plane trip there since the war . . . Probably a record in commuting . . .

Invitations were in the mail this week . . . for a cocktail party and dinner . . . to be hosted by the Thomas Flemings on Sunday, March 1 . . . There will be five o'clock cocktails at the beautiful Fleming home on Via Lola . . . followed by dinner in the Starlight Room at El Mirador . . .

A collection of Howard Shoup fashions . . . will be shown at a Supper Show at the Tennis club on Friday, February 20, at 8 p. m. . . The noted couturier will show cocktail cottons, street and evening gowns . . . including those worn in two films . . . "The Jazz Singer" and "Calamity Jane" . . . and will, himself, act as commentator . . . A gown will be auctioned for the benefit of Cancer Clinic, sponsored by The Fashionettes of Los Angeles . . . The showing will be in the Bougainvillea Room and that color is used effectively in the handsome invitations . . .

Scratch that Rainbow Ball at the Desert Inn . . . off your calendar for February 19 . . . and substitute the Red, White and Blue Ball . . . The Rainbow Ball won't be until March 19 . . .

Dear Palm Springs Villager . . . Thank you . . . and thank you . . .

First All-Hawaiian Fashion Show at El Mirador Feb. 22

Palm Springs will have a new "first" to brag about Sunday, February 22.

On the afternoon of that day, the first all-Hawaiian fashion show to take place on the "mainland" as islanders are wont to call the North American continent, will take place around the Olympic swimming pool and South Pacific Room of El Mirador hotel.

In conjunction with this first national Hawaiian fashion show, Carl Schroeder, swimming instructor at El Mirador, plans to stage a stellar swimming exhibition with some of the foremost Olympic aquatic stars of the nation participating.

The fashion show part of the afternoon's entertainment is being staged by Waltha Clarke, owner of the Hawaiian Shop in the Desert Farmers Market. It is he who lays claim to the fact that the fashion show exhibiting only Hawaiian attire, is the "first of its kind ever to be staged in this country."

Coupled with this bill of entertainment the South Pacific

Room will make its formal debut in the Village, South sea island music will fill the air for just plain listening enjoyment or dancing.

Behind the South Sea island bar, Pat Brillante is expected to lure those present into ordering one of his Hawaiian dreams.

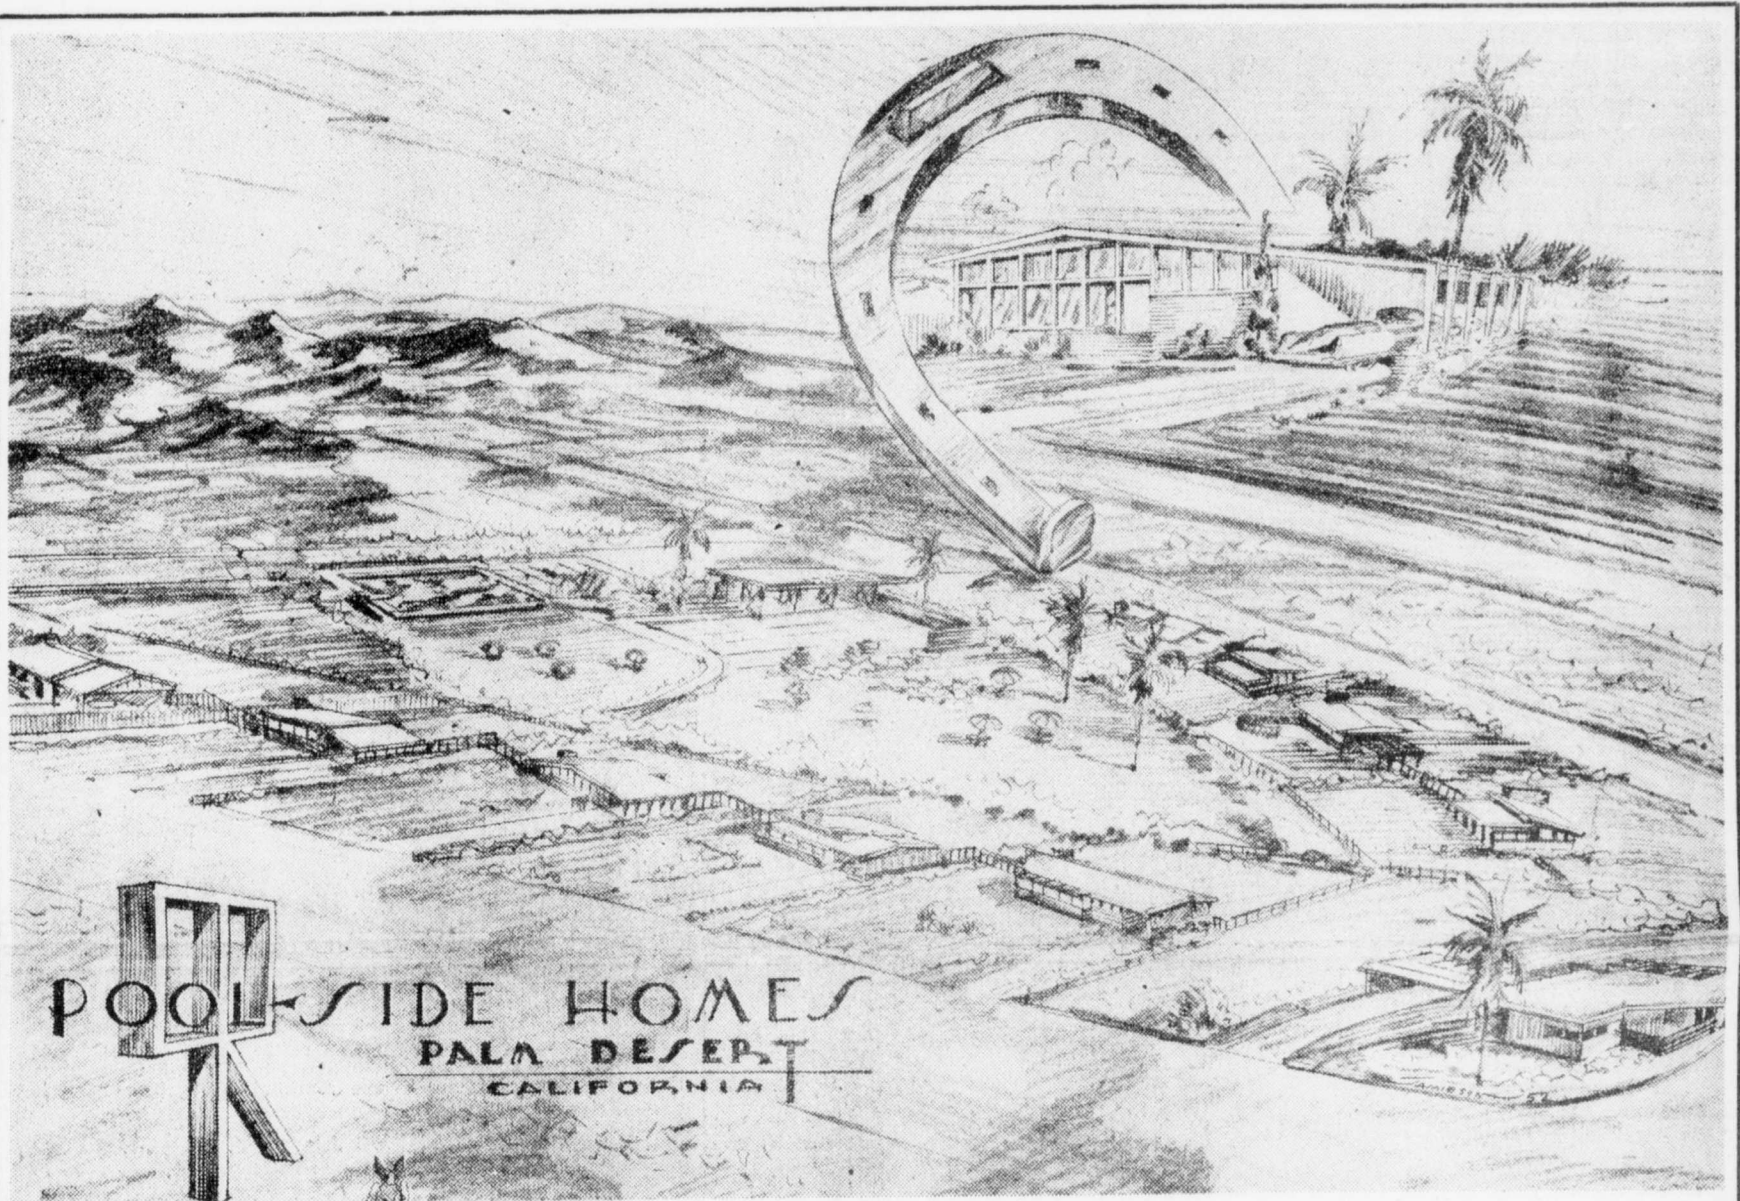

Throughout the entire show Clarke, who calls himself a "Beach Boy Gone Wrong" will explain the difference between a moo moo, a coolie moo and fun moos plus many other South Sea island fashions draped around the beautiful models, "the best in the business," he announced.

Tamarisk Tee Time

By Bobby Tonge, Jr.

The Tamarisk Country Club is busily arranging for a gala President's Day golf party honoring President M. O. Anderson of Seattle, Washington.

The two-day 36-hole handicap medal tourney starting a week from Saturday, is being streamlined to be one "heluva" party the members and specially invited guests will long remember—that may turn out to be a gross understatement.

The Tournament Committee handling the event is composed of the club professional, Ben Hogan, and his staff of Stan Kertes, Pat Martin and Johnny Wood.

Just a mere whisper of the things they've cooked up include: Pari-mutual betting with all the money going back to the players; large comic caricature cut-outs on tees and greens; a tent loaded with free food for the players and a portable bar on a jeep touring the course to keep the humidity at the proper degree.

George Forman is the busiest man in all the hustle-and-bustle. He is pulling a modern miracle getting the new building—housing the golf shop, offices, locker rooms and snack-bar finished in time for occupancy the day before the party starts. He has made unbelievable progress since he recently became the new club building committee chairman. George says the strain and work has been a terrific tax on the family ties.

The membership, alone, will supply a galaxy of impressive names well known in the business and entertainment world. The list of invited guests may add lustre to the field.

There'll be such stars as Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, George Jessell, Danny Kaye, Jack Benny, George Burns, William "Hopalong" Boyd, Horace Heidt, Tony Martin, Dean Martin and the Marx Brothers.

Among the noted producers-directors-writers will be Sol Siegel of 20th Century, Dore Schary of MGM, William Perlberg, Norman Krasna and Harry Tugend.

Representing the businessmen golfers will be such as Len Firestone, Tom May, Bob Hudson, Irving Florsheim, Dan Jones, Harry Grossman, J. Barde, Henry Ittleson, Nathan Ohrback, Harry Oppenheimer and Ed Rothchild.

Ben Hogan has moved into a movie stars' role in a rather big way with the making of a picture here last week. His supporting cast was Bing and Bob Crosby, Phil Harris with Ralph Kiner also taking part.

It was a TV picture for the Christopher movement with William Perlberg doing the directing and producing.

The Christopher movement was originated by Father Keller and is a positive approach to fighting Communism. Finances for this tremendously effective battle are unsolicited and come from people in all walks of life, creeds and races.

Jack Benny is a 70 shooter now and he may junk his violin and take to teaching golf any day. He shot a 79 and might have done considerably better had Mary Livingston, Mrs. Johnny Green (Bunny Waters) and Stan Kertes refrained from letting him know how good he was doing.

Judy Garland has been bitten by the golfbug—sinking a 40-foot putt on the first hole of golf she ever played turned the trick.

Ted Gamble is one of the club's leading hosts having had Dennis Day, Bob Crosby, Milt Josephberg (a Benny writer), Marvin Weiss and Emil Sick, owner of the Seattle Rainiers in the Pacific Coast baseball league at the course. Sick's son, enroute to Korea, also played the course.

Buddy Rogers professed a strong liking for the course after a 77 trip as the guest of Vice-President Montague Herbert.

Jerry Nemer, former S. C. Trojan basketball ace and later a conference official, was also a visitor, sponsored by Marty Cobin.

Stan Kertes, Hogan's teaching assistant, points with pride to Mrs. Babe Didrickson Zaharias as his former student. Now he is predicting Judy Garland may become an excellent fairway hand. Among his other students on the teaching tee are Virginia Fields and her husband, Willard Parker, Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Bill "Hopalong" Boyd, Harpo Marx, Norman Krasna, Harry Tugend and William Perlberg.

CITY OF HOPE—Under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Montague Herbert and Mrs. Ernest Pagano, committees are at work on the $100-a-couple City of Hope benefit dinner to be held at the Racquet Club on February 27. Top Hollywood stars will appear on the program. Pictured on right are, the co-chairman, Mrs. Pagano (seated) and Mrs. Herbert; top, from left, Mrs. John McClure, Mrs. Owen Churchill and Mrs. Jack Kenaston.

Women's Circle Birthday Party Attracts 150 Guests

Seated at tables, decorated in the theme of their birthday months, 150 women attended the Birthday Luncheon given at the Community church Tuesday noon by the Women's Circle.

Mrs. Arthur Coffey, president of the Women's Circle, presided at the head table, which was decorated with an attractive arrangement of marigolds, flanked by tall yellow tapers.

The June table used a large wedding ring and a miniature bride and groom to carry out the theme of the month of brides. February table used hearts for Valentine's Day, and a Maypole, with pastel streamers adorned the May table. There were flags and stars on the July table, and two Pilgrims and an exact filled with fruit marked the November table. Each table, decorated for a calendar month, seated 10 guests, and the overflow guests were seated at the long head table.

Everyone joined in singing the "Happy Birthday" song, and Mrs. David King read the scriptural message. A delicious luncheon of creamed chicken patties, green peas and perfection salad, ended with a fancy dessert of an ice cream ball, with a single lighted candle.

In bringing a message on "Great Women of the Bible," Mrs. William Johnson, parent education leader and counselor for young people, gave an inspiring dissertation on Christian character as exemplified by Biblical characters. She was inroduced by Mrs. Walter Fifield, program chairman.

Mrs. William P. Aikin, general chairman, was assisted by the 12 women, who served as hostesses at the birthday tables. They were: Mes. Charles McFarlane, Harry Yesley, Ormand Eskew, Bruno DiGrandi, Jean Bell, James Blackstone Jr., Frank Miller, Stanley J. Sarnecki, Marie Anita Lambert, Thor Frederickson Jr., Toby Curtis and David King.

The committee in charge of luncheon arrangements was co-chaired by Mrs. Thomas Gow and Mrs. Earl Stewart. Assisting were Mes. Hugh Owen, Henry Laurie, Guy Cockran and Bertha Englebreiten.

Burnetts Back for Village Stay

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burnette (he is head of the Roy Burnette Motors in Portland) are back at Random House. This time they are accompanied by their daughter, Gayle Shoel. The Burnettes hosted a dinner party at Thunderbird Saturday night, feting Mr. Burnette's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Boorse (citrus grower from Ojai) are at Random House for a vacation. Among other Random House guests are Mr. and Mrs. F. E. West of Vancouver, B. C., who are paying their first visit to the Village; and the Roy Davises of Vancouver, Washington.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Just a Little "Outdated"

Back in December we sent out our yearly calendar. It listed the last date for renewing drivers' licenses, and things like the dates for registering to vote, when the hunting and fishing seasons open—even suggested you note down the wife's birthday, too.

I figured dates like these were important to keep in mind—and this was a good way to do it. Unfortunately, it now turns out I never really paid close attention to my own calendar!

Not 'til today that is—so here I am not able to drive the car this weekend until I get my driver's license renewed on Monday!

From where I sit, I guess good advice, like charity, should begin at home. I'm always advising all of you to worry less about your neighbors (what they do, or say, and whether or not they should enjoy a temperate glass of beer) and pay more attention to whether you yourself are doing the right thing. Guess I'll "make a note" to follow my own formula!

VACATIONING—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ward of Beverly Hills, are shown on the steps at the Tennis Club, headed for the tennis courts and a fast game.

New Comedy to Feature Month at Padua Hills

Titled "Manolo," a brand new comedy, with its setting picturesque Michoacan, will be introduced to playgoers on February 18 as the next offering of the Mexican Theater at the Padua Hills theater.

The new play will follow "Que Muchacha" (What a Girl!), Spanish-California romance, in English, presenting songs and dances of the days of the dons, to have its final performances Saturday.

"Manolo" tells a rollicking story of a young man who dreamed that he was a bull-fighter and then was panicked when it appeared that his nocturnal vision might become reality.

Based on an original story by Hilda Ramirez de Lara, the comedy has its setting in the domain of the Tarascan Indians, those rugged individualists whose ancestors never were conquered by other tribes.

Featured in the action of the play will be the quaint customs, spectacular dances and dialectic songs of these interesting people who received international attention through their volcano, Paricutin.

"Manolo," with a merienda, or after-theater party in the Mexican manner, will be staged Wednesday through Saturday evenings, and Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, through March 28, following the opening.

around the... TENNIS CLUB

This week's major activity in Palm Springs is the Invitational Tennis Tournament. With semi-final matches to be played at the Tennis Club on Saturday, and the big Valentine Sweetheart ball set for that evening in the beautiful Bougainvillea Room. It will be a busy spot—the Tennis Club.

Among other parties held in the Bougainvillea Room this week was the birthday dinner given for Mrs. Earl Cordrey. At the celebrating table were: Mr. Cordrey, the Charles Swartzbaughs, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, who were cocktail hosts in their bungalow at the Colony preceding the dinner party; Mrs. J. Templeton Fort, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Taylor, Millie Warwick and Edgar McCoubrey.

Jess Hill, head football coach at USC, was in the Tennis Club bungalows this week, and during his stay spoke in the 25 Club to members of the local Trojan Club. Also in his party were Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Edgerton (he's on the Alumni association board), Arnold Eddy, general director of the Alumni association, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Billheimer and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Neelley.

Mrs. Eddy did not accompany group here, as she left for Europe accompanied by Mrs. Ewart, wife of Professor Ewart of USC. They are to meet the Ewatts' daughter, Janet, who is getting her master's degree abroad. The student will return to marry Ens. James Eddy, USN, who is returning from duty in Korea this month.

Colorful bougainvillea and white invitations are in the mails this week for the Howard Shoup fashion supper show to be held at the club on Feb. 20th. The smart couturier collection of Howard Shoup will feature cocktail cottons, street and evening gowns.

As an added attraction a dress from the showing will be auctioned after the style show, with proceeds going to Fashionettes of Los Angeles. This group sponsors the Cancer Clinic of Hollywood hospital. Besides the auction funds, the Tennis Club will donate part of the evening's proceeds to the Cancer Clinic.

Members are reminded to make reservations early. Mr. Shoup, who will commentate the show himself, promises to show several gowns worn in the forthcoming picture, "The Jazz Singer" and "Calamity Jane." He designs for many motion picture productions beside his society clientele.

Noted dining and dancing at the Club this week have been Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clinker, whose guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKay, Seattle and James Jameson, Oakland.

At a nearby table the same evening were the Joe Froggatts with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sayre and Mrs. Emily DeWar. Mr. and Mrs. Owen Churchill had a gay group at the dance floor's edge to compliment their family, the Douglas Lances.

Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery (Dinah Shore) were guests of members, the George Ripleys.

San Franciscans holidaying in the Tennis Club bungalows are Mr. and Mrs. Selah Chamberlain, Jr., Woodside, with her mother, Mrs. Irving Keyser of Baltimore. Others summing on the rolling lawns are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Straus, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Newhall, Burlingame; Gordon M. Jason, Atherton; Mr. and Mrs. E. Schlesinger of the bay city.

Others taking their sun while vacationing in the Tennis Club bungalows are: Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Haywood, Jr. (he is with Heywood Publishing Co.), Chicago, and from the same mid-western city are Mr. and Mrs. A. Weber.

Maj. and Mrs. C. I. Campbell, Jr., came over from San Clemente to leave the fog behind.

Shrine Clubs of Southwest to Rally in Village Feb. 28

Nobles of southern California Shrine clubs, their ladies and friends, will spend the weekend at the Tennis club, February 28, March 1. A program of golf, swimming, tennis, horseback riding will fill the two days. Beverly Hills Shrine club will join with the Palm Springs

Los Compadres Bronc Busters Ball Gala Affair

Los Compadres and their guests turned out en masse for the Bronc Busters ball at the clubhouse Saturday night. The dance which wound up a busy day for the riders, who participated in the morning's parade and attended the rodeo in the afternoon, was a gay affair.

On Sunday evening, climaxing the two-day rodeo, Los Compadres entertained the Palm Springs Mounted Police and their wives at a dinner at the clubhouse.

Members are reminded to make reservations early. Mr. Shoup, who will commentate the show himself, promises to show several gowns worn in the forthcoming picture, "The Jazz Singer" and "Calamity Jane." He designs for many motion picture productions beside his society clientele.

DESERT DATES—As a finale to the Woman's Club style show last week, models made a final appearance on the runway, wearing outstanding 1953 fashions. Theme of the show was "Desert Dates."

Stage All Set for Gaieties this Weekend

The villain, the siren and the sweet, little heroine set the pace for the old-fashioned melodrama, when the Palm Springs Business Women stage their "Gaslight Gaieties" at the World War Memorial hall Friday and Saturday night, at 8:30 p. m.

The all-woman cast has been in nightly rehearsal and indications are that it will be an hilarious show. Advance ticket sales have been very good, according to the club president, Lola Wack. Today and tomorrow tickets will be on sale in the downtown booth.

This is the fifth year the club has staged its show and, as in former years, one-third of the proceeds will go to charity. Wilma Oertle will appear in the olio acts and Jeanne Keller will end the show, leading community singing.

The audience will be seated at small tables and refreshments will be served during the show.

The cast includes: Louise Purnell as the villain, Wilma Oertle as the heroine, and Helen Morris as the hero. In the supporting cast will be Edith Goldberg, Vera Langston, Estelle Schiller, Mary Pickell, Grace Winterford, Georgia Kettmann, Eunice Tiss, Barbara Root, Mary McGraw, Ida Keeney and Lola Wack.

The director is Irwin Sussman.

Weekend Guests at Marsh Home

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Murray B. Marsh of 289 Camino del Sur, were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Shuttleworth of Amsterdam, New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Monahan of New York City.

Mr. Shuttleworth is president of Mohawk Carpet Mills, and Mr. Monahan is in charge of sales at the mills.

At Ingleside Inn

Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Martin of Los Angeles are staying at the Ingleside Inn for a week or so, while they visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Francis Purnell.

LOUNGE PADS STOLEN

Theft of three chaise lounge pads from around the swimming pool at the Rossmore hotel was reported to police Tuesday by Manager Ed Davidson.

Mrs. Pavny Hostess for Mrs. Duchin

Lighted yellow tapers enhanced the centerpiece of Spring flowers and daffodils, when Mrs. Maury Pavny was hostess at a stork shower honoring Mrs. George Duchin. The Blue Room at the Chi Chi was the setting for the lovely luncheon Saturday noon.

There was a gardenia corsage at each place and the guest-of-honor received an orchid corsage. Adding to the festive occasion was the singing of Jeanne Keller, who accompanied herself at the piano.

After luncheon, Mrs. Duchin opened the array of gifts. The Duchins live on Calle San Antonio and Mr. Duchin is a cousin of Eddie Duchin, the famed orchestra leader.

Among the 25 guests attending the luncheon were Mrs. Duchin's mother, Mrs. Sam Abrams; an aunt, Mrs. Helen Abrams of Los Angeles; and a cousin, Mrs. Dawn Reingold of Chicago.

Food Fashions Changing Says Specialist Here

Miss Mildred Inwood, director of food research for the entire chain of Western Hotels' 22 hostels, is concentrating her talents on Hotel the Oasis this week. She said that the trend toward mid-day eating is for salads, sandwiches and light lunches rather than the old fashioned custom of a heavy meal at noon. With this in mind she is streamlining the menus at the Hotel the Oasis for those who prefer the balanced diet type of food.

However, there still are hot dishes and a full scale menu to choose from for those who feel their daily swim or a golf game inspires a big luncheon. Miss Inwood, whose testing kitchens are in the Sir Francis Drake in San Francisco, has an impressive background in nutrition work. After graduating from Purdue university in Indiana, she became chief dietitian for United Air Lines. It was her studied plan that was adopted on all DC-6 planes, which formed the food units. From these tiny cubicles, she arranged to have a complete meal served every 30 seconds, while the plane was in the air. Later she was called to McCall's magazine, as associate editor, in New York.

For the past two years, Miss Inwood has been with Western Hotels in San Francisco. This week in her first view of the new hotel the Oasis's expansion. She promises to the hotel's already established good service, excellent atmosphere and outstanding facilities, will be added the very best in food.

Rusty Draper Opens Today at Dave Lyons

By SOPHIE STURTEVANT

Business at the Desert Art Center has been booming. A number of paintings and quite a lot of materials and frames have been sold from the shop. The one-man show of C. L. Yearsley in the East Gallery has gone over in a big way. Many visitors have come to see his excellent paintings and have been purchasing them.

As our readers know, the exhibit at the gallery changes every month, on the first. There is an exceptionally fine showing there this month and local citizens are urged to stop in. Most of the visitors are from out of town particularly the Northwest. Every new show starts with a reception open to members and their friends. This month Margaret Davidson, one of our charming and interesting members who is also a painter of considerable ability, former art chairman for three years of the Cathedral City Woman's club, acted as hostess. She has a fine exhibit of flowers showing in the El Mirador hotel gallery which is also under the sponsorship of the Desert Art Center.

William Darling, chairman of the Artists' Advisory Council, is very busy these days laying the groundwork for the Painters' Guild which is being formed by the members who are interested specifically in painting. We understand that a Musicians' Guild and a Writers' Guild are also in the making. All three guilds will be an integral part of the Desert Art Center and will be formed from the general membership of the guild.

Our most recent artist member is Hans Paap whose work is of the highest quality. He will soon be forming a painting class here. He stopped by on his way from Taos, New Mexico, and after a showing at the Cowie Gallery in the Los Angeles Biltmore hotel he came here because Rusty Draper who opens at the Saddle and Sirloin tonight for a little more than a week's stay, has been accused of larceny more than once during the past few years.

According to press notices, the redheaded guitar playing entertainer hasn't committed the type of larceny that could land him in jail but has been stealing shows wherever he has appeared in night clubs or theaters.

One drama critic for a nationally known publication wrote: "Sleeper in the show is Draper, a redhead who's been contracted to one spot in San Francisco for the past eight years. Whatever he did there for that length of time, one thing is certain, he's prepared himself for the quickest flash ride to popularity the business has seen since perhaps Johnnie Ray."

Draper is sky-rocketing to fame right now and Dave Lyons predicts the performer will be the most sought after entertainer on the stage within the next six months.

he heard of the art center and its plans. He is rated among the foremost painters in America and holds an honorary membership in the Mark Twain society of which Samuel Clemens is president and Winston Churchill vice president and many other famous names on the board. Six of his Indian heads were purchased by Mr. Barrett O'Shea as he says they lend themselves to modern interiors. The Cathedral City gallery has the greater part of his works and he is living at Wolseth's Desert Lodge.

Famed for his portraits he is now at work on two, Captain H. L. Harris and Mrs. Payne Jennings.

DANCING DOLLS—Enlivening the table decor for the Cabaret Capers to be presented by the Jewish Women's Group this evening, will be the dancing dolls, made by Mrs. Abram Simons and her committee, Mrs. Dexter Blau and Mrs. Sam Black. Mrs. Simon and Mrs. Sam Black are shown here with the dolls.

Patriotic Ball at Desert Inn February 19

Highlighting the patriotic month of February at the Desert Inn in Palm Springs will be the brilliant Red, White and Blue Ball scheduled for Thursday evening, February 19.

In a month marking such famous birthdays as Washington's and Lincoln's and being an inauguration year as well, this event will be a very timely celebration and a very colorful one as well. The red, white, and blue color scheme will be carried throughout with flags, flowers, favors, serpentine and table decorations. The fair sex will do their favorite red, white, and blue gowns for this affair, but their escorts will no doubt settle for a red, white, and blue ribbon decoration, whether necktie, cummerbund, or a bold band

Jewish Women's Group stages its Cabaret Capers.

Advance ticket sales for the charity benefit have been very good, according to Mrs. Isadore Becker, reservations chairman.

There will be a floor show featuring some mystery talent, all local, and as star act, Patricia Holton, glamorous mental telepathist, and her company, Roger Herman will emcee the show which starts at 7:30 p. m.

There will be a beautiful buffet table, prepared by the Racquet club chefs, and guests will dance during the evening to the music of Mike Ortiz' Latin American orchestra.

Mrs. Albert Bergman, ways and means chairman, and Mrs. Arthur Lebowitz, entertainment chairman, have been working with the president, Mrs. Jack Freeman, to make the 1953 Cabaret Capers an outstanding affair.

WHAT NO HAT?—Even Hedda Hopper, noted columnist and collector of hats, doesn't wear a hat in the Village. She is shown dining at El Mirador. Hedda, who spent several days here, gets this picture in appreciation of the Palm Springs publicity in her column yesterday.

Carnation Corner

One pleasant Western custom gaining popularity everywhere is cheese for breakfast. Good, and so easy, is simply to put a big dish of Carnation Cottage Cheese on the table right along with the breakfast jam and crispy toast. Mmm!

Dust Venetian Blinds quickly and easily by slipping a pair of old wool socks over your hands. Easy to dust the tape sections this way!

For Sunday breakfasts or a Sunday "brunch" party — use the thin pancake recipe on your pancake mix package. Roll a tablespoon Carnation Cottage Cheese and a spoonful of jam into each pancake. Keep warm in a pre-heated (but turned off) oven.

COTTAGE CHEESE FRITTERS

(Makes 8-10 medium fritters)
1 1/2 cups well-drained Carnation Cottage Cheese
2 tablespoons grated onion
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
1/4 cup Carnation Fresh Milk
1 egg
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
Shortening for deep frying
Blend Carnation Cottage Cheese with onion, green pepper, milk and egg. Combine dry ingredients and add to cottage cheese mixture. Mix thoroughly. Drop from spoon into deep shortening heated to 365° F. Fry till brown and crisp—about 3-4 minutes.

IM HOTTERN ANYBODY!
The green pepper we use in salads and cookery comes from a surprisingly large family, of every size and shape. There are round, conical, twisted and flat bean-like peppers. Some are dark red, some scarlet, others pale to bright yellow, or white. They vary in size from big bulbous peppers to tiny pea-size ones. And the smaller the hotter — so watch out if you run across the tiny, fiery "bird pepper"!

COTTAGE CHEESE ROQUEFORT FILLING

(Makes about 2 cups filling)
1 oz. (about 1 tablespoon) Roquefort cheese
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup Carnation Cottage Cheese
1/2 teaspoon grated onion
Blend all ingredients until smooth. Chill before using to stuff celery stalks or individual tomato cups.

BE GOOD TO HUSBANDS If yours has a small plaster-patching job, let him use your rubber foot scraper. A perfect tool!

Carnation Cottage Cheese is good for you. It is higher in protein and lower in calories than any other regular-type cheese. Brings strength without weight, you might say. So good-tasting — extra cream is added to Carnation Cottage Cheese right at the dairy. Do enjoy this good food often.
